Perched atop Bournemouth's fashionable West Cliff, the Highcliff Grill offers breathtaking views and an unparalleled dining experience. Refurbished in 2008, this elegant restaurant boasts two AA rosettes and umpteen awards, including the Daily Echo's 'Best Restaurant 2010' and the coveted 'Service Excellence Award 2010'. The Highcliff Grill provides the perfect spot for every occasion, from a sunset meal on the terrace bar to a barbecue on the lawn while watching Bournemouth's summer fireworks and annual air festival.

'...creatively presented and full of flavour...'

Executive chef Clyde Hollett and his team have a passion for everything culinary. They use fresh, local seafood and West Country meat, and every dish is creatively presented and full of flavour. The extensive menus highlight healthy options, vegetarian dishes and unusual signature dishes, while the wine list is helpfully categorised to help you make your choice. Must-try desserts include indulgent lemon posset and a divine chocolate fondant pudding.
