

April 2009 - Highcliff Grill in Homes Magazine

Highcliff Grill prove culinary expertise

Members of the award winning Highcliff Grill kitchen participated in various competitions during the 2009 Annual Hotel and Catering Show at the Bournemouth International Centre.

Andy Smith, Sous Chef, won a Bronze medal in the competition for an outstanding lamb dish, followed by a Merit Award for a superbly executed Scallop main course.

The Highcliff Grill's Kitchen star performer at the competition was On Yee, the Hotel's Pastry Chef, who won two Bronze and two Silver medals. Her entries included sugar flower displays, wedding cakes and cake decorations amongst other entries.

Michael Regenhardt, General Manager said, "this is a great achievement for the Highcliff Grill kitchen and it is a true testament of their passion, versatility and commitment to their profession and quest for culinary excellence. I am proud to have them on board and look forward to achieving even greater things for our Highcliff Grill in the future."

The Highcliff Grill offers an award winning menu featuring the freshest seafood, succulent steaks and all time classics. The restaurant is located at the Bournemouth Highcliff Marriott Hotel in a breathtaking cliff top location.
